

Making good days happen books borrowed invested in Welsh Language material stories to be shared purchased schools supported by our libraries clubs and social groups hosted total hours our libraries were open activities and events delivered children signed up for our Summer Reading Challenge

STEM activities delivered

People welcomed through our doors

Rhymetime sessions of children say a library helped them learn & find things out

